

THE COURTS.

In the County Clerk's office, yesterday, a judgment was entered in favor of plaintiff by default in a suit brought by the Imperial Bank (limited) of London, England, against Allen Hay, the well known soap boiler manufacturer of this city. The suit was to recover the amount of promissory drafts drawn by the defendant on Messrs. Gadsden & Co., of London. The amount of the drafts, in currency, is $971,188.50 and the interest added thereon amounts to $455,345.50, making the total judgment $1,426,534.00.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT—IN BANKRUPTCY.

COURT OF SPECIAL SESSIONS.

Before Justices Morgan, Duffy and Murray. The following cases were disposed of yesterday:—William Siner, a youth, for tapping a till, was sent to the house of refuge.

TOMBS POLICE COURT.

Before Judge Duffy. Arrest of an Allocated Stroller. Officer Bove, of the Fifth precinct, while patrolling his post last evening, saw a man coming out of the window of the store No. 35 Lispenard street. The officer arrested him, and subsequently ascertained that a quantity of liquors and cigars, the property of Henry S. Bove, had been stolen from a trunk, containing wearing apparel valued at $22. It appeared that Miss Hotchkiss gave him the trunk to have it checked to his destination. Henry S. Bove, who gave his name as Alexander Annesley, was held for trial.

ALLEGED EMBROIDERY.

Herbert L. Latrop, who has been in the employ of Adolphus, Flat 1, Co., No. 102 Greenwich street, since 1871, in the capacity of bookkeeper and confidential clerk, was arraigned on a charge of embezzlement. It was alleged that since Latrop's connection with the firm he has systematically embezzled sums aggregating $3,500. Suspicion toward him was aroused about the 15th inst. by the discovery of a sum of $100 in his possession, which was developed to warrant his arrest. His examination will take place on Wednesday next.

WANTED BY POLICE COURT.

Mr. Gang Long is a Chinaman who has been in the employ of the firm of Messrs. J. & W. West, No. 251 Eighth avenue. On the night of the 24th of June three rough-looking men entered his place and demanded $10. Being refused, one of them, named Michael Cassidy, stabbed the Chinaman in the left shoulder, while the other two men, whose names are unknown, made a rush for his money. This money was taken by Cassidy, who fled, and the Chinaman was taken to the hospital. Cassidy was arrested on Thursday night by Officer Cal, of the sixteenth precinct, and arraigned before Judge Bixby yesterday. He was committed to $2,000 bail to answer for his trial.

ESSEX MARKET POLICE COURT.

Before Judge Morgan. A Case for a Valerianian. Denis Maher, an old man, about seventy-two years of age suffering with dropsy, was arraigned on a charge of shooting Michael Maher, of No. 8 Birmingham street, in the back. Mr. Benjamin Clark, who resides at the above number, testified that he saw Maher take out a pistol and deliberately fire at Maher, on Friday night last. This prisoner, who seemed to be an imbecile, admitted that he had done so, but he said that he was in a very dangerous condition in Bellevue Hospital, and the judge committed him to the hospital to await the result of his injuries.
